

FOR WHEN i'm not HERE

A place to leave words
that matter

How this works

This piece is made up of a few simple sections.

Each one has a different purpose.

You don't need to complete them all.

You don't need to write in order.

Some pages include a gentle starter line.

You can use it, change it, or delete it entirely.

There's no right way to do this.

You're simply leaving words to be found later.

This can be used at any stage of life.

You don't need a reason to begin.

THINGS i would
want you TO KNOW

A place for the most important truths.

These pages aren't written to anyone in particular.

They're written in your voice, as if you were in the room.

You might write about things you hope are never misunderstood, or words you'd want remembered.

I don't know when you'll read this, but I want you to know...

LETTERS i would want you TO HAVE

Messages written to the people who matter to you.

You can write to one person or many.

You can write one letter, or several.

These are words you would have sent, if timing or circumstance had allowed.

PRACTICAL things

Helpful notes, written in a human way.

This section is for the things you'd normally explain out loud.

It's not legal or official, just practical. This doesn't replace a will or formal documents. It sits alongside them.

You might include where things are kept, who knows what, or what doesn't need worrying about.

This is just to make things easier...

WORDS for hard DAYS

Words left behind for moments you can't predict.

This section isn't written to anyone in particular.

It's a place to leave reassurance, perspective, or comfort.

These aren't instructions or advice.

They're simply your voice.

If today feels heavy, read this slowly...

things i BELIEVE

Values, not guidance.

This is a place to share what mattered to you,
and what you came to understand over time.

There's no need to teach or persuade.

These are simply the things you stood for.

Over time, I came to believe that...

small WISHES

Gentle preferences, not demands.

This section is for the little things.

Music, places, objects, or details that feel like you.

Nothing here has to be followed.

They're just quiet wishes.

These aren't instructions, just a few gentle wishes...

extra PAGES

Space to keep writing.

These pages are intentionally open.

They're here in case you want to add something later,
or write something that doesn't fit anywhere else.

No starter line. Just space.

If you've written anything here,
you've already done something generous.
You've left words behind.
And words matter.
